Tothom Cookie Policy

Last updated: September 8, 2024

Does Tothom Use Cookies?

Tothom does not use cookies or any other technology that collects information about visitors. Since we do not use cookies, no data related to your browsing preferences or device is stored or processed.

However, we may display links to our social media accounts and third-party websites, which have privacy policies independent of Tothom. You may decide whether to accept those policies when accessing such platforms. For more information, we recommend reading our privacy policy.

What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small files stored on your device when you visit certain websites. These files are commonly used to remember user preferences, track browsing activities, or authenticate users. However, Tothom does not employ these technologies.

Why Don't We Use Cookies?

We have designed Tothom to provide a seamless and functional experience without the need to collect personal information. This ensures that your browsing is completely anonymous, and no data is stored or collected while interacting with our content.
